

FACULTY OF PSYCHOLOGY

S1 - PROGRAM

PSYCHOLOGY

Program Description

The Faculty of Psychology was established in 1984 to respond to the growing needs in society for experts in psychology. The demands of life often result in huge psychological pressures. In addition, the industrial world has brought about changes in our view of human resources. The Faculty of Psychology aims to include all stages of people's lives from childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and old age.

Curriculum

Graduation from the program requires successful completion of 144 credits taken in 8 semesters. The learning process takes place through student centered learning activities to develop hard skills and soft skills. Students are encouraged to develop their knowledge and skills not only in the classroom but also through varieties of learnings such as group discussion, practicum, simulation, case study, etc.

Alumnae

In 2013, the program has more than 3,500 alumnae. These alumnae have worked in a variety of fields including education, health, industry, and human resources development, community empowerment, etc. They could work as:

1. Counselors
2. Therapists
3. Educators
4. Researchers
5. Trainers
6. Human Resources Development practitioners
7. Social workers

Facilities

1. Psychodiagnostics Laboratory
2. Physiological Psychology Laboratory
3. Experimental Psychology Laboratory
4. Analytical Data Laboratory
5. Institute of Applied Psychology (LPT) Soegijapranata
6. Child Development Disorder Care Center (P2GPA) 'Renaning Siwi'
7. Center for Giftedness
8. Center for Trauma Recovery (CTR)

Cooperation

The Faculty of Psychology has established cooperation with community agencies, educational institutions, and professional agencies. It has also established networks with foreign universities such as Radboud Universiteit – Nijmegen, De la Salle University Dasmariñas – Philippines, Miriam College – Philippines.

